And - a-now, the end is near and so I face the fi-nal cur-tain, my friend, I'll say it clear, I'll state my case of which I'm cer-tain. I've lived a life that's full, I've tra-velled each and ev-'ry high-way, and more, much more than this, I did it my way. Re-grets, I've had a few, but then a-gain too few to men-tion, I did what I had to do, and saw it through with-out ex-em-ption. I planned each chart-ered course, each care-ful step a-long the by-way, and more, much more than this, I did it my way. Yes there were times I'm sure you knew when I bit off more than I could chew. But through it all when there was doubt I ate it up and spit it out. I faced it all and I stood tall and did it my way. I've loved I've laughed and cried, I've had my fill, my share of lo-sing, and a-now, as tears sub-side, I find it all so a-mus-ing. To think I did all that, and may I say not in a shy way, oh no, oh no not me, I did it my way. For what is a man? What has he got? If not him-self, then he has not to say the things he truly feels, and not the words of one who kneels. There-cord

F

51

G

59
